What is the Youth Leadership Institute (YLI)?

YLI is a free, four-day, overnight, college empowerment conference for high achieving Latino high school juniors held at two top universities across the US. This highly selective program is designed to give young leaders the practical tools they need to successfully apply to top universities, have full access to scholarship and financial aid opportunities, and set a course for academic and career success. Attendees will enhance their leadership abilities and expand their professional networks by participating in college and career workshops, living on a college campus, and interacting with college students and professionals who serve as their mentors.

Why should I attend?

By participating in the Youth Leadership Institute, you will benefit in the following ways:

- Fine tune the practical tools needed to successfully apply to top universities, effectively access financial aid and scholarship opportunities
- Experience what it's like to live on a college campus and interact with current college students
- Interact with Hispanic professionals and university representatives; participate in professional skills training workshops covering interview skills, networking, and team building
- Create lasting friendships and expand your network with future leaders from all around the country!

How long has this YLI program existed?

The YLI first was launched in 2004. Past host universities include Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, USC, and others.

What have past participants said about the YLI?

"The YLI has given me confidence that I am a competitive applicant and can be admitted to a prestigious institution, and moreover, that I could thrive and succeed upon graduating." YLI 2018 Participant

"YLI has drastically changed my thoughts about going to and graduating from college. Before, I was hesitant about attending a college far away from home and meeting new people. YLI has provided me the opportunity to experience dorming and network with people from various states. I no longer have fear of exploring colleges located in different states." YLI 2018 Participant
